

Exmouth & Bystock News

Congratulations !

Outstanding! That was the verdict from the RHS “In Your Neighbourhood Award” for Bystock Pools Reserve and Clare Carter’s Bystock Mindfulness Trail.

The details of Clare’s trail can be found at

DLR CARDS & DWT Exmouth Local Group
www.dlrcards.co.uk

Bystock Work Party

The Work Party at Bystock started again on Tuesday 2nd November and will meet fortnightly. On this sunny first day, rambling brambles and pervasive silver birch were removed. If you would like to join us please register with DWT.

One of Bystock’s many mushrooms

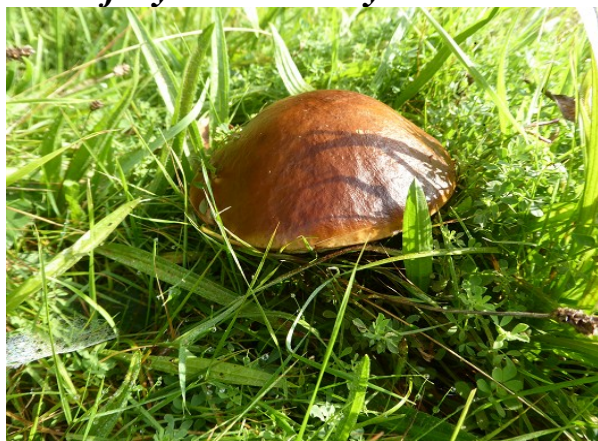

Photo Mary Turner

A bolete mushroom, another Bystock beauty!

Wildlife on the Otter

Zoom in to enjoy November’s winter talk with David White, East Budleigh photographer. David received national recognition when his photo of polecats in Hayes Wood was featured in the Countryfile calendar 2019.

Photo by David White

First time sightings on Bystock

A Peregrine Falcon was seen flying above the meadow during the Bystock work party this week. The first grey long-eared bat was recorded by a well-hidden ‘hi-tech’ detector.

Future ‘Zoom’ talks

December – GM and talk by Rog Hamling

January – Kate Ponting from East Devon Conservation Trust.

February – Sarah Butcher on bats, Exmouth

March – James Chubb, EDDC.

(News and photos to dihill@dianekhill.plus.com please).